Mission

The Women's Fund of El Paso, Inc. is dedicated to improving the status and quality of life for women and girls in the El Paso area by creating purposeful and affordable philanthropy, connecting women to the vital resources that foster education, individual leadership, and economic growth.

Vision

The Women's Fund of El Paso, Inc. promotes access to funding, information, and networking to help women receive a better education, develop critical leadership skills and achieve personal economic growth. We secure resources to grant funds to women for educational advancement and leadership development. We work with non-profit agencies to develop networks that help women connect and share their talents, skills, expertise, energy and time through our social currency program. We provide an online network of information at www.womensfundofelpaso.org to advance connectivity and exchange among women in our community.

Join the Network

To learn more about becoming a member of the on-line network, log on to www.womensfundofelpaso.org. Your participation helps us create a greater impact on women in El Paso. Your support will help other women grow personally and develop leadership skills at home and in the workplace. Share your thoughts and ideas through on-line forums, organize giving circles with your friends and colleagues or learn more about applying for grants. The Women's Fund of El Paso can help you make a difference. Join us, and together we can change the economic landscape for women in El Paso for years to come.
