Save the Date!!! The 2009 Power of the Purse event is almost here! This year's theme is "Bubbles, Baubles & Bags" because, for the first time ever, not only can you bid on fabulous celebrity and designer bags, but also on jewelry and accessories! And what fabulous things—Prada, Dior, Hermes, and many other fashion icons. And what fab celebrities! Jessica Simpson. Vivica Fox.

Ashlee Simpson. And much more!

Of course, in addition to being a glittery and fabulous social event, you will be changing someone's life by allowing us to fund college scholarships for very deserving single mothers.

Please visit www.womensfundofelpaso.org for ticket and other information.

May 7, 2009 at the oLo Gallery in downtown El Paso: a night of dream bags and accessories and of dreams come true.
